Of Illinois.

Trade with the Sandwich Islands.

Among the many notes of progress at present sounding in the ears of Oregonians, is a proposition for the establishment of a line of packets between Portland and the Hawaiian Islands. We feel bound, not only to wish the enterprise all success, but also to commend it to the especial attention and patronage of our interested people. The advantages to be derived from such a line are duplex—connecting us with a market for our surplus productions, and enabling us to import directly the staples of these Islands at San Francisco wholesale prices. Hitherto, our sugar, syrup, rice, coffee, and other Island produce, have been subject to all the cost of drayage, wharfage, commission and freight from San Francisco, in addition to what the freight, if imported direct, would amount to. This would be a great saving to the consumers, and even then allow the merchant a greater margin for profit than under existing circumstances he can enjoy. We understand that Capt. Brooks, of the American bark Cambridge, a staunch and seaworthy vessel of some four hundred and fifty tons carrying capacity, proposes to run regularly between this port and Honolulu, making the round trip in sixty to seventy days. This would give the shipper returns, in cash or barter, in less than ninety days, and enable him, if he desired to export small quantities of Oregon produce and receive therefor the Island articles for home consumption, to make the profit on each, getting the best price for his own, and the return goods at first cost with freight and duties added. How many of our farmers or the attaches of farms, employ one or two months each year in the manufacture of shingles which they trade off for necessaries at infinitely less prices than they would realize if they made the Islands the point of reciprocal traffic. We are told that several of our merchants, recognize the importance to Oregon of this direct trade, will make shipments, and it would be well if more could be induced to contribute freight to fill up the ship. Should the demands of Oregon justify Capt. Brooks in putting on an additional vessel, he will be ready to do so at the proper time. With fine accommodations for passengers an opportunity is presented by this ship for those desiring a speedy and pleasant trip to a healthful region, and we have no doubt that many of our invalids will embrace it in preference to the longer, more tedious and expensive tour to the same place by the way of San Francisco. Let us promote our best interests by encouraging direct importations and giving at once to our city and State the commercial position she must sooner or later assume.

Sanitary Fund Donation in Marysville. The Appeal says that at a special meeting of Tiger Engine Company held in that city on the evening of the 9th inst., it was ordered that the splendid four-wheel hose carriage, lamps, and other appurtenances, together with all money belonging to the Company, after paying all necessary expenses, be donated to the Sanitary Fund. The presentation is take place during the presence of the Rev. Dr. Bellows there—the carriage and other property to be disposed of at auction, or as may be determined on at the time.

John Day Mines.—We wonder if any of the Copperheads have heard from the John Day Mining Region. We have. It was the boast of the Cops. that Kelly would receive 1,000 majority among the honest miners. The full returns give Henderson 325 votes, and Kelly 313. Pretty hard for the Colonel. After a hard trip, he was beaten 12 votes, the next night the Indians stole his horse, and he had to foot it until he met the stage or the stage met him. Well may he exclaim, "save me from my friends!"

Filling Up.—We understand that the quota of men required by Capt. Olney, at the Dalles, for four months' service on the Canyon City road, will be full in a day or two. It is hoped that so soon as the wire is again in working condition on the Eastern route an order from Headquarters will authorize Maj. McLean to muster in the company agreeably with their terms of enlistment.

Gale in San Francisco.—On the 10th inst., an old time promenade, known as Meig's wharf, extending several hundred feet into the bay on the north side of San Francisco, was carried away by the sea in a gale. The piles were completely eaten through by worms, and had for several years been considered unsafe.

Yakima Indian Agency.—The Senate has confirmed the appointment of Rev. J. H. Wilbur, of Oregon, as agent of the Yakima Indians, in Washington Territory.

Panic Among St. Louis Secessionists.—During the past week, says the St. Louis correspondent of the Alta, of May 16th, there has been a remarkable excitement among the secessionists in this city, caused by several arrests of prominent merchants and others who are notoriously in sympathy with the South. These arrests immediately followed the order postponing the execution of a guerrilla spy and incendiary named Bob Loudon, for burning steamboats at our levee last summer. Loudon made some sort of a confession which has not been made public, but there is believed to be an intimate connection between these sudden arrests and that confession. One prominent mercantile establishment has been closed by the Provost Marshal, and the members of the firm arrested. The President of a street-railroad and two leading jewelers have been arrested likewise, and it is rumored that that the Provost Marshal has the names of about one hundred other individuals who have been secretly engaged in helping the cause of the South, and smuggling munitions of war through the lines. The result is that a wide spread fear prevails among all the secessionists of St. Louis. The guilty ones shake in their boots, and it is to be hoped "that there may be cause for their shaking."

California and Oregon Railroad Grant.—The following extract is clipped from Simonson's Washington letter to the Bulletin, dated May 11th, 1864:

Mr. Cole, from the House Committee on the Pacific Railroad, has reported a bill to authorize and aid in the construction of a railroad connecting the Pacific Railroad in California, with the Columbia river, in Oregon. It grants to the California and Oregon Railroad Company of California the right of way for a railroad and a telegraph from Marysville, through the Sacramento valley, and the Rogue river, Umpqua and Willamette valleys to the navigable waters of the Columbia. It also gives to the company ten alternate sections of public lands on each side of the road and contiguous thereto; but it does not permit the selection of unoccupied lands lying at a distance exceeding twenty miles from the road, in lieu of lands already taken up, covered by private titles, reserved for Government purposes, etc. The other terms of the grant are similar to those usually contained in Congressional land grants for railroad purposes.

Another section provides that the California and Oregon Railroad Company shall relinquish and assign to the California and Columbia River Railroad Company of Oregon, the exclusive right to construct that portion of road lying within the latter State, together with all the grants of land appertaining to that portion of the road, so soon as the Legislature of Oregon shall have passed the necessary laws for the protection of said company, and upon payment to the California and Oregon Railroad Company of an equal portion of the cost of the surveys and other expenses that may occur prior to said assignment. The company must file their assent to this Act within six months after its passage, complete the work to the Oregon line by the 1st of July, 1872, when it must be met by the Oregon portion of the work also completed.

The House Committee were unanimous in their support of this bill, and Mr. Cole will do his best to secure its passage at the present session.

Great Flood at Denver, C. T.—On the night of the 16th May, a destructive flood swept over the town of Denver, Colorado Territory, caused by a sudden rise in Cherry creek and the river Platte. A vast amount of property was destroyed and many lives lost, in consequence of the suddenness and unexpectedness with which the place was inundated. C. Bruce Haines, late Secretary of the Territory, was among the drowned. The ranches along the line of Cherry creek and the Platte sustained immense injury in the loss of live stock. A drove of 4,500 sheep were swept entirely off; hundreds of cattle and horses were lost, and the dead bodies of men, women and children were found lodged in the trees, among the drift wood, or deposited high on the beach, after the water had subsided.

The Chinese Government and the United States.—The Shanghae papers publish a dispatch from Prince Kung, Chief Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, addressed to the Hon. Anson Burlingame, U. S. Minister Plenipotentiary in China, in which the Prince Kung says that he has notified the various Governor Generals and Governors of the maritimes provinces, that if the steamer Alabama, or any other ship intending to injure American shipping, should come into their jurisdiction, they are on no account to permit such vessels to come into port.

Overland Mail from the East.—The Virginia Daily Union of the 9th inst., says: "We have not received an Overland mail from the East for several days, and it is not probable that we shall get one for some days to come, as the Platte, Green and other rivers east of us are flooded, and to an extent beyond the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant." We expect to hear of an extensive destruction of property, and loss of life."

Crawfish.—Quite an excitement was occasioned the other day at the Dalles, by the appearance of a myriad of crawfish which had lost their reckoning, wandered from the supply creek into the iron pipe, and upon the fire hydrant being used for watering the streets, were forcibly ejected and compelled to "change their course of life."

Horace Greeley appeared personally before Judge Barnard, May 6th, and avowing his responsibility for the sentiments of the Tribune. He declined to answer further, whereupon the Judge said the "apology" was accepted, and discharged Mr. Greeley. The Judge was quite Pickwickian in his treatment of the case.

The flag of the California Regiment, commanded by the noble and ill-fated Col. E. D. Baker, during his life, having been sent out to William T. Coleman, of San Francisco, by Colonel Frank Pinto, has been presented by Mr. Coleman to the Society of California Pioneers.

Medary's Platform.—The following, from a late number of the Crisis, is the platform upon which Sam. Medary was elected to Fort Warren:

There can be no doubt about the fact that any attempt to transfer the Democratic party on to a war platform will be resisted with more determination than some men, who would sell the country for an office, suppose. They want neither Lincoln nor any of his Major-generals.

The strength, and the only strength, of the Democratic party, from first to last has been opposition to this war, unholy, barbarous and ruinous.

Chief-Justice Taney has resumed his seat on the bench of the Supreme Court, having entirely recovered from his sickness of three four or months' duration.

Washington Territory Election Returns.

Walla Walla, W. T.

The Democrats carried Walla Walla county with the exception of one Representative—B. N. Sexton, unconditional Union candidate. The officers elect are as follows:

Councilman—W G Langford.
Representatives—A L Brown, O P Lacy, F P Dugan, B L Bridges, and B N Sexton.
[For Joint Representative, John Sheets is ahead of Alvin Flanders 77 votes, with Skamania and Klikitat counties yet to hear from.]
Probate Judge—J H Bluett.
County Treasurer—J McAuliff.
County Surveyor—C A White.
County Commissioner—H D O'Bryant.
Coroner—Dr A J Thibodo.
[For Prosecuting Attorney, J H Lasater is ahead of S B Fargo 138 votes with Stevens county yet to hear from. Spokane county only polled 90 votes last year.]

The Walla Walla Statesman, from which we clip the foregoing, says the total vote was 628—a gain of only 26 over last year. Walla Walla precinct gained 57 votes. In the city the contribution to the Sanitary Fund amounted to $296 75 cash, and $16 pledged—making a total of $312 75. At Upper Touchet, $199 was pledged at the polls, payable Oct 1st, and $3 paid in cash.

Mrs. Lincoln and her Half-sister "Martha."—Washington correspondence of recent date, of the Boston Journal says:

Mrs. Lincoln has some half sisters who have never been particularly intimate with the branch of the family to which she belongs, and when the rebellion broke out they took sides with the South. One of them had sometimes visited them at Springfield, and was considered a pleasant and agreeable girl. Some little time since she appeared at the White House on a Saturday afternoon, sent in her card, was received and spent the Sunday. As she was leaving on Monday, she remarked that "Martha" was in Baltimore and desired a pass to go South. How she got to Baltimore the President could not imagine, but he said he would give her precisely such a pass as he gave any one. About two weeks subsequently to this "Martha" appeared at the White House and sent her card. Mrs. Lincoln responded that they could not receive her. She then sent in word that she desired the promised pass. The President wrote one in the usual way precisely such an one as is given to any lady—and sent it out to her, and she drove away. The next day she again appeared, and sent her card to Lincoln, who returned word that she could not be admitted. She then sent in a note that the pass she had received was not such a one as she wanted; she wanted to take some goods South. Lincoln turned over her note and wrote upon the back that the pass was precisely such as he gave to others, and she could have nothing different. The next day she appeared in the reception room, with others, waiting to see the President; but, finding it out, Lincoln told his messenger not to admit her. The next day she appeared again; the same directions were given and she did not get an audience. The next day she came with a Kentucky member of Congress, who told the President that she was in waiting; thought it hard that she could not see him, etc., etc. He intimated to the member of Congress that if she did not avail herself of the pass without delay she would find it revoked. The next day she again appeared with another member of Congress, but the President still refused to see her, and told the Congressman that he had heard of her talk where she was stopping, and that if she continued it or staid around here she would find herself in the Old Capitol in less than 24 hours. She departed, and the President heard nothing more from her until the newspaper stories appeared.

Movements of the Alabama.—The Hamburg bark Orion arrived at St. Helena on the 22d of March, and reports as follows:

On March 13th, in lat. 34 deg. S. lon. 15 deg. 5 min. E., observed a screw steamer under sail, with the American ensign flying, and a signal, "Heave to, and I will send a boat on board." The Orion was then hove to, when a boat was lowered from the steamer, and came alongside of us with eight men armed, and an officer in uniform. The ship's papers and log were demanded; the latter being new, the old one was demanded. The boat's crew told my crew that they had 270 men on board, and it was also stated that they were last from Rio Janeiro, but had been 70 days at sea; also that they were waiting off the Cape for a storeship, when they were to proceed to China to take the place of an American frigate in those waters, about which they made inquiries, but when told of the Alabama being in the China waters they appeared to consider it insignificant. She then left us. The vessel is a three-masted schooner, sails very fast, and to all appearances is British built. The Alabama put into Table Bay March 20, for coals and other supplies.

The total number of ships destroyed and captured in the Indian Seas had been seven—the Amanda, Winged Racer, Contest, Mataban or Texan Star, Senora, Highlander and Emma Jane; but Capt. Semmes reckoned the damage indirectly done to the Federal commerce by his cruise in the Indian Seas as equivalent to $5,000,000.

The presence of the Alabama caused such a panic that great numbers of the Federal ships lay in Singapore and other harbors for more than three months, unable to get freight and afraid to venture out to sea. The Alabama was expected to remain in Table Bay for three or four days.

A Son of Jefferson Davis Accidentally Killed.—The Richmond Examiner of the 28th of May says that "the President and his family have just met with a great affliction in the sudden and violent death of Joseph E. Davis, second son of the President, about four years old. He fell from the east portico on Sunday afternoon, between three and four o'clock, a distance of fully fifteen feet, fracturing his hip and injuring his head. Mr. Davis and wife were absent from the mansion at the time of the accident.

Probable Recognition of Maximilian, Emperor of Mexico.—The Alta's Washington correspondent says:

It is understood that Maximilian will be quietly enthroned without protest from the United States, and that if his minister is sent to Washington, giving assurances of an unobjectionable policy in relation to our political troubles, there is every reason to believe he will be recognized.

Democracy at the Judgment.—The shades of Broderick and Baker keep prophesying against the pro-slavery democracy, from the altitudes of Lone Mountain. The accusation of their murder, mingling with the melancholy dirge of the waves, keeps ever ascending, and the avenger of blood keeps swinging his flashing sword over that Genius of Assassination.—S. F. Flag.

Bogus.—A man named Yokum is traveling through Plumas and northern counties pretending to be an agent of the U. S. Sanitary Commission, and endeavoring to get Democrats into a secret society of some sort. He is an impostor. With the exception of Dr. Henry W. Bellows, there is no agent of the U. S. Sanitary Commission in this State.—Appeal.

Grant and Lee Compared.—The New York World in reviewing the Virginia campaign says, with a good deal of just discrimination, of the qualities of the two marked men leading the armies, that thus far our army has shown more steadiness, the enemy more mobility. Grant has been cool and inflexible, Lee fertile and dashing. The manœuvering, in Friday's battle was all on the side of Lee, who evinced a readiness of resource and an easy promptitude in the handling of his troops which reflects credit alike on his generalship and the never failing vigor by which he was checkmated in all of his moves. A commander who so many times during the day hurled a heavy and concentrated mass of troops against his foe at distant and unexpected points, with a suddenness which out-stripped the counter concentration by which they were repelled, and which enabled him to dictate and compel the movements of his adversary, but did not disclose the points of his own line which these repeated massings must have weakened and exposed, has displayed an inventiveness in manœuvering and a skill and promptness in execution which prove him a great master of one branch of the military art.

On the other hand, General Grant's quality (and it is one of the very highest) is an unconquerable tenacity of purpose. He is a soldier who cannot be shaken or daunted; whose imperturbable coolness cannot be ruffled by the most unexpected and threatening incidents. Instead of losing poise and getting into a flutter when this or that part of his line seems breaking and about to give way, he is incapable of believing its possibility, even though it be taking place before his eyes. A General who is made of this staunch stuff cannot easily be beaten. A defeat in battle is oftener a moral than a physical result; heavy fighting tends to bring on, on one side or the other, a moment of wavering or discouragement; and then an army succumbs rather to these feelings than to a physical impossibility of prolonging the contest. If it fights on with dauntless steadiness, in the face of discouragement—and still more, if it can never know the feeling, its superior morale may prove an overmatch for the other side, which may be overtaken by that sudden quailing which is the turning point of fortune. General Grant's dogged and indomitable tenacity, and his utter incredulity to the existence of danger, is an earnest that he will not be disconcerted by the most unexpected manœuvers, nor yield, or allow his army to yield, to a sudden and disastrous surprise.

Lee, with his superior readiness and fertility, has never given evidence of this stubborn and invincible persistence. His is the mobility and the dash of the wave: not the firmness of the rock. His courage, like the good man's wrath subsides with the going down of the sun. It was so at Antietam; it was so at Gettysburg; it was so again last Friday after the great battle of the Wilderness. In a preliminary engagement he is buoyant and hopeful, but when all his forces have been brought up and he has handled them like a master through the hours of a long day, his overstrained faculties become relaxed after so much brilliant and fruitless endeavor; lassitude and loss of ardor fill the night—very likely a sleepless night—with gloomy forebodings, and he has no stomach for renewing the fight the next day. The more phlegmatic and imperturbable Grant, whose insensibility to danger has not allowed him to be wrought up to a high pitch of excitement, does not sink into exhaustion when the day's fighting is over, and is ready to enter on the next day's work with a mind which "bates no jot of heart, or hope." This is a matter of more temperament; but something akin to it has been possessed by nearly all the great commanders. They have slept soundly on the night before and the night after the most momentous battle—a certain indication that they possessed that strength and steadiness of the nervous system which does not, as in the mere man of thought and genius, wear itself out in self-consuming excitement.

Report of the Grand Jury.—The Grand Jury, for the present term of Circuit Court, completed their investigations and were discharged on Saturday evening. A report of their proceedings has been submitted to Court by the foreman, Mr White, which shows a marked observance of law and order in the community, as only three cases have been considered necessary to indictment: One for assault, with intent to disfigure the person; one for assault, with intent to maim; one for murder, in the first degree. The following subjects of their report are of interest to the community:

ABOUT INDIANS.

Some matters connected with the Indians allowed to be in our midst, have come to our notice. We find that numbers of these degraded persons are permitted to come and reside near, or within the City of Portland. There are some who are unprincipled enough to furnish them with liquor, and engage in licencious intercourse with them, and frequent difficulties and breaches of the peace have occurred in consequence. We have not been able to find the particular individuals who are guilty of these crimes, or we should have done our part toward securing their punishment; but we can speak in terms of earnest condemnation of the Indian Agents and Superintendents, who permit these Indians to leave their reservations. Nothing but evil can result from intercourse between them and the whites, and we recommend such action and legislation by the officers and City Council of Portland, as will prevent them from coming within the city limits.

CITY JAIL.

We have examined the City Jail of Portland. It is a disgrace to the City. Low, damp, and unsafe; it is not fit for the confinement of a Coyote. While we admire the taste exhibited in the grading and beautifying public squares, we cannot commend the neglect of the city authorities to attend to the statements of former Grand Juries, on this subject. In ages past the darkest, dampest, and most uncomfortable of dungeons were considered most fit for the confinement of persons charged with, or convicted of crime, but more enlightened times have developed the [illegible] of combining the desire for reform with just punishment for violation of law. We trust Portland will not make herself an exception to progress in the right direction.

Accidents.—A [illegible] occurred to a workman at [illegible] brick yard, on Saturday morning, while [illegible] the chute used in delivering [illegible] from the summit of the mound [illegible] the right arm was broken, and nearly severed from the body, with a [illegible] The velocity of the wood was so great that the wounded man was thrown fifteen feet from the place of the accident. A few hours later a man employed at the Oregon Iron Works met with an accident which nearly resulted in the loss of two fingers from his right hand, while using a large grind stone at that establishment.

Beauties of Nature.—Captain Brooks of the bark Cambridge, now lying at Couch's wharf in this city, from the Sandwich Islands, brought over some exquisite specimens of coral obtained from the group of the South Sea Islands, by a missionary brig. This coral is procured by native divers at a depth of several fathoms below the surface of the sea, and are nearly as rare at Honolulu, as at Portland. The coral is very delicate, and is quite handsome, composed of bunches and twigs. Some of the finer specimens were sold at a good figure, to persons who take a great interest in collecting choice specimens of nature's beauties.

School Examination.—The annual examination of the children attending the schools under the charge of the Sisters of the Most Holy Names, in this city, will take place on Monday next, at St. Mary's Academy. The morning examination, for the junior classes attending St. Joseph's Academy, will commence at half past nine o'clock. The afternoon examination for the intermediate classes, will commence at half past one o'clock. In the evening the advanced classes will give their annual exhibition, commencing at half past six o'clock.

Clothes Line Depredators.—A descent was made on the lawn of a private dwelling in the upper part of the city, on Friday night, and the clothes line robbed of a goodly portion of the linen of the family. The thieves made off with their booty, and have not yet been apprehended. The success of this attempt may embolden them for another, and persons should look out for them.

Rich Rock.—Mr. Eades arrived from Salem last evening, by stage, bringing with him some of the richest specimens of gold bearing quartz that has ever yet found its way to Portland. These were procured from the White Ball lode, in the Santiam district, and give undoubted evidence of rich gold deposits near home.

Clean Decks.—The steamer Senator came from Oregon City on Saturday afternoon without any freight, in consequence of a failure in connections with the boat above Willamette Falls.

There are some who are unprincipled enough to furnish them with liquor, and engage in licentious intercourse with them, and frequent difficulties and breaches of the peace have occurred in consequence. We have not been able to fix the particular individuals who are guilty of these crimes, or we should have done our part toward securing their punishment; but we can speak in terms of earnest condemnation of the Indian Agents and Superintendents, who permit these Indians to leave their reservations. Nothing but evil can result from intercourse between them and the whites, and we recommend such action and legislation by the officers and City Council of Portland, as will prevent them from coming within the city limits.

CITY JAIL.

We have examined the City Jail of Portland. It is a disgrace to the City. Low, damp, and unsafe; it is not fit for the confinement of a Cayote. While we admire the taste exhibited in the grading and beautifying public streets, we cannot commend the neglect of the city authorities to attend to the statements of former Grand Juries on this subject. In ages past the darkest, dampest, and most uncomfortable of dungeons were considered most fit for the confinement of persons charged with, or convicted of crime, but more enlightened times have developed the possibility of combining the desire for reform with just punishment for violation of law. We trust Portland will not make herself an exception to progress in the right direction.

THE COUNTY JAIL

is as well kept as could be expected under the circumstances, and while not all that is desirable, inasmuch as the county authorities are taking steps for the erection of public buildings which will be an honor and credit to our growing city and county, we have no changes to recommend in that quarter.

THE INSANE ASYLUM.

We were much gratified with our visit to the Oregon Insane Asylum. We found the most perfect cleanliness and good order in the premises in every part. We mingled freely and conversed with many of the unfortunate patients there confined, and found them contented and comfortable. The situation of the Asylum is beautiful, an honor to the projectors and proprietors, (Drs. Hawthorn and Loryea,) and we believe entitled to the confidence and support of the people and State. We found two patients in the under the management of the same gentlemen—who are [illegible] and speak in high terms of the kindness and [illegible] which surround them.

THE STATE PENITENTIARY.

We found the Penitentiary in the same fine condition [illegible] by other Grand Juries since it passed under the [illegible] of the officers of the State. No escapes have [illegible] since the lessees surrendered the institution, and [illegible] the State is amply repaid for the small balance standing against it in the accounts of the institution in the comfort and healthfulness of the criminals. Cleanliness and good order were manifest in every part and ample supplies of substantial plain food and [illegible] were found in the building. Some improvements [illegible] since the visit of the last Grand Jury. While [illegible] details the present laws on the subject of the Penitentiary may be improved, we think the present arrangement has been [illegible] calculated to be good.

ABOUT A CITY CEMETERY.—A citizen writes in relation to the subject of a city cemetery, [illegible] why a private cemetery should [be] used on the east side of the river, at such distance and expense, when there are a number of suitable sites accessible to us on this side of the river?" and further [says] that ground was once selected by the [former] Council on the line of Terwilliger's and Caruther's claims, both of whom donated [ten] acres each for the purpose, but from some cause the ground has never been used. The time has now come to establish a city cemetery, that can be ornamented and decorated properly, and reached conveniently. A proposal to pay $4,000 for 23½ acres of ground on the east side of the river, reached a second reading on its passage, by the late Board, and is now pending before the Council in the hands of a committee. That it is dangerous to cross the river at certain stages of weather, is well known, and at all times the trip is expensive for funerals. We do not wish to be considered as "throwing cold water" on the action, but trust the Council will have already canvassed the matter, before final action is taken, so as to avoid any regrets in the future.

ACCIDENTS.—An accident occurred to a workman at Thornally's brick yard, on Saturday morning, while adjusting the shute used for delivering wood to the kiln from the summit of the mountain, by which the right arm was broken, and nearly severed from the body, with a sliding stick. The velocity of the wood was so great that the wounded man was thrown fifteen feet from the place of the accident. A few hours later a man employed at the Oregon Iron Works met with an accident which nearly resulted in the loss of two fingers from his right hand, while using a large grind stone at that establishment.

BEAUTIES OF NATURE.—Captain Brooks of the bark Cambridge, now lying at Couch's wharf in this city, from the Sandwich Islands, brought over some exquisite specimens of coral obtained from the group of the South Sea Islands, by a missionary brig. This coral is procured by native divers at a depth of several fathoms below the surface of the sea, and are nearly as rare at Honolulu, as at Portland. The coral is very delicate, and is quite handsome, composed of bunches and twigs. Some of the finer specimens were sold at a good price, to persons who take a great interest in collecting choice specimens of nature's [illegible].

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The annual examination of the children attending the schools under the charge of the Sisters of the Most Holy Names, in this city, will take place on [illegible] next, at St. Mary's Academy. The morning examination, for the junior classes attending St. Joseph's Academy, will commence at half past nine o'clock. The afternoon examination for the intermediate classes, commence at half past one o'clock. In the evening the advanced classes will give a musical exhibition, commencing at half past six o'clock.

CLOTHES LINE DEPREDATORS.—A descent was made on the lawn of a private dwelling in the upper part of the city, on Friday night, and the clothes line robbed of a goodly portion of the linen of the family. The thieves made off with their booty, and have not yet been discovered. The success of this attempt will embolden them for another, and persons should look out for them.

THE CASCADES TRAGEDY.—We learn that the Grand Jury in the Circuit Court in this County last week returned an indictment against the Bush brothers, charging them with the murder of John P. Denison. The alleged offense was committed in Washington Territory, but there is a statute, passed several years ago, which provides that if death ensue in Oregon, in consequence of blows, or an assault made elsewhere, the party charged may be indicted where the death took place. We suppose the prosecution will rest upon the validity of this statute. It was stated yesterday that application had been made to the Governor of this State for a requisition upon Gov. Pickering, of Washington Territory, for the alleged criminals, who are now in custody at Vancouver. We have not learned whether Gov. Gibbs issued the necessary papers, but if so, and the parties indicted are brought here for trial, the case will be a novel one, as it is said that it is the first instance in which the provisions of this peculiar law have been employed.

GOLD FISH.—The finest and largest lot of these new fashionable parlor pets, ever seen in this country, arrived by the Cambridge. They are easily rendered tame, and are always an object of interest as well as ornament. They are selling at $1 each.

THE CAMBRIDGE arrived at Couch's wharf during Friday night. In justice to Captain Brooks we will state that the bark was accidentally grounded while in charge of the pilot and was being towed by the steamer John H. Couch.

IN THE LINE.—The steamer Pioneer is again making tri-weekly trips to the Cascades.

We speak from experience when we say that, after having tried all the principal sewing machines, we must accord to that of Grover and Baker the pre-eminence. Those indispensable features of sewing—strength, uniformity, and elasticity—all of which are brought out in this incomparable invention, make it the first sewing machine in the country.—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

Pierson, Agent for this city.

Complaints of Children.—In the case of fast-growing and scrofulous children, predisposed to curvatures and other deformities, it is often disagreeable to give a tonic without stimulants, and an alterative without irritation. For such, it would be impossible to select a preparation combining so many of the above advantages as the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

Coughs and Colds.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket, and taken as occasion required.

In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. CHECKS ON SAN FRANCISCO
my23:tf WELLS, FARGO & CO.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

REEDSBURY, Wis., Sept 16, 1864.

"* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *
C. A. FLAUTE."

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.

"* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET, }
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863. }

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of a[illegible], distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c. deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

SOME OF YOU CAN'T, AND WE PITY YOU. YOU have tried every remedy but the right one, and that one is destined, by its intrinsic merit to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

Pulmonary Syrup!

Is really what is claimed for it; namely, the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by the surprising curative powers of

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!

And with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the Greatest Panacea of the Age, for the healing of all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!

Has cured thousands, and it will cure YOU if you try it.

This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste; soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects; entirely free from all poisonous or deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.

Certificates from many prominent citizens of San Francisco, accompany every bottle of

NEWELL'S
Pulmonary Syrup!

Brick Pomeroy Cures a Cold

I have been very sick It was a cold A dab bad cold indeed I came near going for to quit I went so far down the lane, it was a grave question whether it were best to retrace or trace ahead It was our cold I caught it ever so easy The fire went out The lamp flickered low The kitchen clock tolled the death of the day as I told the girl that I loved her The clock struck as the idea struck me I was getting cold I told the girl so We sat on a sofa Said she "sit up closer" In her lap we laid our head Who cared for a little cold We talked of lots We talked low because we were down stairs I caught the cold, but not the girl Then I went to a doctor A doctor of physic, so I met a physic! How do you like that joke? He felt of my tongue and looked at my pulse, said I was sick Told me to go home, soak my feet, cover up in bed, eat nothing for a week, and be well Gave him five dollars and saw my landlord He said no deductions could be made on board so I couldn't follow the physic's advice Then I saw another doctor He told me to take two bottles of hot drops, a bed blanket covered with mustard and go to bed Told him I didn't want a hot drop till I dropped in for ever. Told him I didn't want to be mustered in that way Told him I didn't want to go to bed Then I saw another Knight of the Scalpel It was the same night that I saw him, though He told me to take cod-liver oil and honey Told him I had no cod liver Then he said I must eat cold tallow Said I "That never agrees with me" Then he told me to eat fat beef I thought him a humbug and went elsewhere Thought I'd try the cold water plan Eminent hydrantopathist told me to soak my head in ice water soak my feet in ice-water, sit in a barrel of ice water two hours bathe my back in ice water, eat pounded ice till I sweat and I'd feel better Good way to get up a sweat, but then it would have spoiled a skating pond to have done it

Another doctor told me to use dumb bells Supposing he meant a deaf and dumb girl, I declined

Another Esculapius told me the Homeopathic style was all the rage Gave me five thousand little pills, marked A Gave me five thousand more little pills, marked B Gave me five thousand more little pills marked C Told me to take one pill in a pail of water every five minutes, to take another pill in two pails of water every four minutes Told me to take half of another pill in five pails of water every two minutes Took two pills and I went to the river Hired a boy to dip up and I pour down Emptied the river in ten minutes Changed my base to a young lake and I went at it again Cold didn't improve that is, the cold didn't improve me. Went home mad Gave 14 000 pills to a chap who pilfered chickens from the barn He is [illegible]

Another doctor told me to take calomel Another one told me to drink hot whisky. How do you like that? Two good doctors till I met a physics in such spirits Sent two barrels of whisky to my room First tried a pint of hot whisky It loosened my eyes Then I tried a pint of cold whisky It fixed them all right Then I moved with great [illegible] upon a pint of hot whisky It loosened my legs Then I threw my left flank [illegible] a pint of cold whisky Felt better Then I tried some hot whisky Fine doctors Rather like them both Tried some cold whisky It affected my head somewhatly Tried another pint of hot whisky Very fine doctors—know just how to cure a cold Shall employ them by the year Tried two pints of cold whisky Began to feel better, felt like another man Tried two pints more of hot whisky, felt like two other men Fine doctors I love them quitely Kept on with the whisky felt like three or four new men, [illegible] never lived such doctors Tried half a quart of cold whisky mixed with half a quart of hot ditto, ditto always means whisky Felt better felt like a company of new men Tried to get in line, formed in the shape of a hollow square on the floor Took some more whisky, don't remember whether it was hot or cold, or cold or hot Felt much better Passed a vote of thanks to the physicians felt better Drank to their health, got the whisky mixed Felt like a brigade of new men Tried to surround my enemy Moved upon his works and he gave me battle Took another position Threw my entire corps to the front Attacked the commissary camp and took a pint of whisky prisoner Fine doctors like their way of curing colds A good way was five days proving it to be a good way Hair pulled a little but it was on account of the cold They said I'd feel like a new man and I believe them When you have a cold try the new style

Spiritually, 'Brick' Pomeroy.

The Fate of Peg Woffington —Once, when advertised to appear in a favorite part she pleaded indisposition and declined to go to the theater The next night, on coming on as "Lady Jane Grey" she was greeted with a storm of hisses and a demand that she should beg pardon Then she walked off the stage in magnificent scorn and when not without difficulty, she had been induced to return, she calmly faced her excited audience with a "now then" sort of look, and tacitly said "On or off, it must be as you please to me it is a matter of perfect indifference" The treatment was successful and up to the time of her last appearance she had nothing but pettings from her audiences This was in Rosalind, in 1767 When she came on early in the fifth act she complained of being ill, but rallied, changed her dress and once more trod the stage defiant of fate Again she yielded to the coming blow, but her self will carried her to the epilogue, and she began with awful gayety the words, "If I were among you I'd kiss as many of you as had beards that pleased me—" when the once saucy tongue was smitten with paralysis and Margaret Woffington with a shriek of abject terror, and amid the cries of a commiserating audience, disappeared from the stage forever In the meridian of her beauty, but weary calling, and ashamed of her life poor Margaret died penitently and slowly, at Teddington so slowly that the end did not come until three year after she was dead on the stage —Temple Bar

The Soldiers' Voting Law in Vermont — The Supreme Court of Vermont has decided that the law of that State conferring on soldiers the right to vote is unconstitutional so far as it relates to State officers, but constitutional as it relates to the President and members of Congress

Joe Baldwin's Last —The inimitable Judge Baldwin of California—(everybody ought to know Joe as he was the author of a book called "The Flush Times of Alabama and Mississippi")—Well the jolly Joe went to Washington last winter to see Uncle Abe—and after his return to San Francisco, he told an awful "yarn" about our illustrious and good natured President But nobody believed the story He was up in Virginia, not long ago—(we do not mean the Old Dominion, where Jo is shel to go, to see his old dad) While there he related a good joke about Jim McDougall California's temperate Senator, which will bear publishing—for the yarn is Joe and Jim all over, Baldwin and McDougall had been on a visit to New York in January and while there, they had "run together," as it were Having got tired of city life, they took passage in the cars for Washington When the train arrived at Newark New Jersey, Jim got out to take a drink— Joe being a member of the Temperance society remained in the car By some mishap or oversight, the cars started off leaving California's efficient Senator behind but in a wholesome state of spiritual forgetfulness —and not knowing anything about the railroad train until it had been gone at least half an hour Upon recovering a gleam of self possession sufficient to imagine the great importance of his immediate presence at Washington he rushed furiously to a livery stable and demanded a carriage instanter, as he wished to go to Elizabethtown to overtake the railroad train for Philadelphia! The demand being urgent and as he was a Senator from California, he didn't care a d—n what kind of a carriage it was just so he could reach Elizabethtown he even expressed a desire to have a sleeping carriage, or one in which he might repose during his journey The livery man was perplexed—all his carriages were out—he had none in his stable but a hearse, so Jim assented to repose in that anyway, so he could reach Elizabethtown The hearse was accordingly hitched up at once two drivers occupying the seat, while Jim occupied the interior, where he could repose The team made good time for six miles when the drivers halted at a wayside inn to take a drink The halt awoke the distinguished Senator, who accordingly inquired of the Jehu whether they had reached the cars yet? "No," said the driver, "we're going to take a drink" "The devil you are" said Jim, rousing himself up a new idea having evidently struck him "well, I guess I'll (hic) take a drink (hic) too. The Corpse is dry!" —Gold Hill News

Uncle Toby on the Miseries of Printing a Newspaper —"I pity the printer," said my Uncle Toby. "He's a poor creature," rejoined Trim "How so?" said my Uncle "Because, in the first place," continued the corporal, "he must endeavor to please every body In the negligence of a moment, perhaps a small paragraph pops upon him, he hastily throws it to the compositor—it is inserted, and he is ruined to all intents and purposes" "Too much the case, Trim," said my Uncle, with a deep sigh, "too—much —the—case" "And please your honor," continued Trim, elevating his voice, and striking into an imploring attitude, "and please your honor, this is not the whole" "Go on, Trim," said my Uncle, feelingly "The printer, sometimes," pursued Trim, "hits upon a piece that pleases him, and he thinks it cannot but go down with his subscribers, but, alas! sir, who can calculate upon the human mind? He inserts it, and it is all over with him They forgive others, but they cannot forgive a printer He has a host to print for, and every one sets up for a critic The pretty Miss exclaims —'Why don't he give us more poetry, marriages and bon mots? away with these stale pieces' The politician claps his specs on his nose, and runs it over in search of some violent invective, he finds none, he takes off his specs, fold them, sticks them in his pocket, declaring the paper good for nothing but to burn Every one thinks it ought to be printed expressly for himself, as he is a subscriber, and yet after all this complaining, would you believe it, sir," said the honest corporal, clasping his hands beseechingly, "would you believe it, sir, there are some subscribers who do not hesitate to cheat the printer out of his pay? Our army swore terribly in Flanders, but they never did anything so bad as that" "Never!" said my Uncle Toby, emphatically —Tristam Shandy

If we are to have colored men connected with our armies, we think that of all the military weapons and implements, they should have the pick —Prentice

It is well known that the medical effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron without further oxidation has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica A A HAYES M D

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over estimate its influence as a remedial agent Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM, and to have great control over
SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER

without a solvent This considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city and Prof Booth U S Mint Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see American Medical Monthly, July 6, 1856, page 78)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine The patient recovers flesh strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble he becomes full strong and florid
